Groupe Partouche reopens its casinos on Tuesday the 2nd of June in France

Paris, 29th of May 2020, 5:45pm

Following the Government decisions, Groupe Partouche announces the reopening of its 38 French casinos on Tuesday the 2nd of June.

The Swiss casinos will reopen on Saturday the 6th of June and the one in Djerba (Tunisia) on the 4th of June. No decision has yet been taken in respect of the Belgian establishments.

A strict health protocol set up by the Group completes the barrier gestures, in order to adapt the Group's establishments' activity related to the prevention from the Covid-19.

Particularly, amongst a whole set of measures:

- firstly, only the slot machines and the electronic forms of traditional games will be made available, table games (traditional) will reopen at a later stage, according to the regulatory provisions;
- in order to respect social distancing, gaming machines have been spaced and some are separated by a Plexiglas panel in between;
- wearing a mask is mandatory for both the employees and the clientele;
- masks, alcohol-based hand sanitizer, disinfecting wipes will be made available to the clientele;
- a regular disinfection of the equipment will be carried on;
- a training related to the knowledge of the coronavirus and basic protective measures against the coronavirus pandemic is provided to the employees.

Groupe Partouche has developed a disaster recovery plan which abides strictly by the government guidelines in order to protect its employees' and clientele's health and security.

Catering activities within the casinos will also reopen with the strong constraints related to this activity. Similarly, the hotel activity will resume gradually and according to each site.
